Fowler, who with Edgar Duncan, Hamlin grocer, last week went to Colorado on a deer hunting expedition, sat down to their first breakfast of the hunting spree and—pop! went Fowler's lower dental plate right in the big middle.

Well, that fixed L. R.'s eating proclivities for several days. He even had to forego the ham and eggs and toast that had been prepared for that meal—as well as other meats and hard foods.

Cooked cereals and soups are a heck of a way to feast on a hunting trip, Fowler will inform you.

Oil Production to Be Cut in Texas During November

Land owners and royalty holders of the Hamlin territory will experience a further cut in income from oil during November, following the setting of decreased production pattern by the Texas Railroad Commission at Austin last week.

Texas will produce slightly less crude oil next month than in October although the daily allowable was increased by the commission.

This paradox stems partly from an increase in the permissive flow by 61,465 barrels daily to 3,004,401 barrels a day.

Taking into account daily well build-up and under-production, the 30 days of November will produce 80,160,990 barrels compared to 81,537,719 barrels this month. October's production will be down about 2,750,000 barrels from September.

Independent oil producers had their way in fixing the 11-day producing pattern, the same as in October. Most major companies recommended the allowable be figured on either a 12-day or 10-day pattern. Under the commission's conservation formulas the 11-day pattern means wells will be shut down only 19 days next month compared with 20 this month—resulting in the 61,465-barrel-a-day boost.

Allotments to Be Announced Prior To Vote on Plan

Hamlin area cotton farmers will participate in the annual referendum on marketing quotas, along with those of the rest of the Cotton Belt, on December 15.

A national marketing quota of 12,167,000 bales, a national acreage allotment of 16,000,000 acres and a date set, December 15, for a farmer referendum on marketing quotas for upland cotton have been set by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

All are in accordance with present legislation covering cotton. In setting the national marketing quota figure the secretary found that the total supply of upland cotton exceeds the normal supply needed by 4379,000 bales. The national acreage allotment for 1959 will be apportioned to the states, the state allotment to the counties and the county allotments to farms according to the provisions of the law.

If marketing quotas for 1959 are approved—it takes two-thirds favorable vote—in the December 15 referendum, the cotton grower will have a choice between two allotment-price support programs known as Choice A and B.

Under A, growers who comply with their regular acreage allotment will have available price support at not less than 80 per cent of parity. Growers under Choice B receive large farm allotments—40 per cent above the regular allotment—but with a reduction of 15 per cent of parity in the support price as compared with Choice A.

If marketing quotas are not approved for the 1959 upland cotton crop, only the regular allotment program will be in effect. Price support will be available to cooperatives 10 per cent of parity as set by law. Under the 1958 program and in accordance with controlling legislation, growers who exceed their chosen farm acreage allotments will be subject to penalties of 50 per cent of the cotton parity price as of June 15, 1959, on the farm's excess production. Too, all cotton produced on the farm will be ineligible for price support.

According to J. E. Montgomery, program specialist, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) office, notice of individual farm allotments under both Choice A and B will be made available to producers prior to the December 15 referendum.

FARMING IS STILL VERY HIGHLY DIVERSIFIED

Farming in the United States remains highly diversified despite the continuing developments in mechanization and automation, as farmers of the Hamlin territory will attest. John G. McHaney, extension economist, says this is true not only in crops produced, but also in size, in labor spent in production and in investment in land and equipment.

A recent U. S. Department of Agriculture report on farm costs and returns on family operated farms for 1957 lists 31 major types of commercial farms and 18 important farming areas in the nation, says McHaney.

The different types of farms vary considerably in acreage and intensity of use. Farms range in size from an average of 10 acres for poultry farms to 13,340 acres per sheep ranch in the Southwest. Little or no land is cropped on these two types of farms.

Farms with more intensive cropping range

from an average of 29 acres harvested on high labor intensive tobacco farms to around 425 acres on grain roughage livestock farms. Average labor per acre of cropland ranges from 135 hours on tobacco to eight and one-half hours on grain roughage livestock farms.

Total investments per farm also vary considerably among the types of farms, points out the economist. Peanut and cotton farms averaged a total investment of $10,530 in 1957, while the sheep ranches of the Southwest averaged $177,770. Machinery and equipment investments ranged from $1,800 for the peanut and cotton and poultry farms to almost $17,000 on wheat-pea farms.

McHaney also points out that a wide range in total investments exists within a farming type area and among individual farms within the area. Corn Belt farms, for example, range from less than $40,000 to more than $100,000 per farm.

Honest Errors Pay Well

Federal tax enforcement efforts in the Dallas district, covering the north half of Texas, have resulted in the recovery of $70,430,993 in additional revenue during the fiscal year just ended—July 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958.

A. E. Fogle Jr., administrative officer at Abilene, said that sum exceeds by $10,660,434, or approximately 18 per cent, the amount the Internal Revenue Service recovered through its audit and collection activities during the previous fiscal year.

Of the total sum, $39,056,656 was accounted for by the regular auditing of tax returns. $3,101,520 came from pre-refund auditing, and $28,272,817 resulted from the collection of delinquent accounts and securing of delinquent returns.

Most of the recovered funds, Fogle said, resulted from the collection of honest errors made by taxpayers, brought to light through IRS auditing procedures. These same examinations, he said, also showed returns which contained different interpretations of federal tax regulations.

A small portion resulted from the work of IRS special agents' investigations of cases in which fraud was present.

Meat Reflects Enterprise

Heavy stress is placed on dark areas in the economic landscape. But there are many bright spots—and one of them is agriculture. Prices received by farmers for their products have been running 10 per cent above the level of a year ago. In the first quarter of this year, farm income was more than $1,000,000,000 ahead of the equivalent period in 1957. Secretary Benson foresees continuing gains for the rest of 1958.

An outstanding rise has been registered in livestock prices. As of a recent date, beef cattle prices were a whopping 35 per cent better than they were a year earlier, and hog prices were up 21 per cent. And demand for meat runs at high levels.

This is a matter of top importance. Meat, to speak, is a staple item of production on the majority of farms—the small as well as the large. And that isn't all—meat, unlike the so-called basic crops, moves in a free market. Earl D. Butler, one of the country's top farm counselors and agricultural economists, has said: "What most people forget is that some of the most important farm commodities are not price supported by the government. For example, livestock and their products represent more than half of the gross income of farmers, yet the only commodity in this group that is price supported is butter."

The whole meat industry—from the farm, through the packers, to the retailers—is geared to the free enterprise system. That's why it is a success—and why it isn't burdened on the taxpayers.

Do It Now: Say It!

You have a friend, a man, a woman, a boy or a girl. For some reason you love that person very much. Perhaps that one does not know, and would like to have you say it.

Your friend has helped you along the way in the days gone by. Gratitude is in your heart. Do not let it lie buried there—say it.

Some joy comes his way. You rejoice with him. But he will never know it unless you say it.

An honor comes to him. He wins in the game of life, and you are glad—say it.

Your friend succeeds in some task which he has undertaken. You feel grateful pride that he has done it—say it.

Distress comes his way. He may have lost his property. Some of his loved ones may have gone wrong. Disease may have laid its hand on him, taking away the glow of health. You would share the distress with him—say it.

Old age, or perhaps a breakdown in the human machinery, may shut in your friend so that he can no longer fare forth among his fellows. Perhaps the end draws near. In your heart you wish him bon voyage as he nears the sunset gate. A word of kindly sympathy would brighten the way—say it.

The messenger of death may have knocked at his door and borne away into the unseen world some loved one. A word of sympathy would help to lighten the load—say it.

A personal word, a telephone call, a postcard, a letter, a telegram, and only a few minutes of time! Silent sympathy. Your own life may be better because of it, but your friend may go to the end of the journey and never know. You may add to the joy; you may lighten the load; you may brighten the way if you only take time to say it.

As an old-timer we can remember when the only time we had for coffee was about an hour before daybreak and two hours after sundown—Aztec, New Mexico, Independent.

Editorial of the Week

GIVE US RUNNING WATER

"The conveniences and comforts which running water could bring to farm homes would do more than any other single thing to hold young people on the farm. So said hundreds of farm boys and girls in one of our recent young folks letter contests.

Those who didn't have running water said, "It would be the greatest home improvement that could be made." Those who had recently installed a water system praised its many virtues—convenience, comfort, elimination of drudgery, health benefits, etc.

Only two-thirds of all farm homes (64 per cent) have running water. That one in three which is left still represents well over a million farm families. It's a challenge and an opportunity—Progressive Farmer.

Special Sale of Stockers and Feeders Brings Nearly Half Million Dollars

Sale of more than 3,000 typical Texas stocker and feeder calves and yearlings at Fort Worth in the annual October special sale developed two distinct governing factors, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly summary, who points out that: 1. Where the quality was high buyers were definitely more active; 2. In all cases the weight of the cattle was a predominant influence in the bidding.

With this year's crop of calves and yearlings scaling much above normal, the buyer's awareness of the number of dollars involved was quite noticeable. Price per pound went down sharply with each extra 100 pounds.

Calves weighing under 400 pounds were extremely scarce. Yearlings under 600 pounds also were scarce.

The two-day affair at Fort Worth attracted entries of over 3,300 head, of which owners sold 3,003. These cattle averaged 492.8 straight across, and the average price was $27.40 per 100 straight across in sters and heifers alike.

Total money paid for the was $405,605.78, an average of $135 per head. Good and choice steer calves sold in the $27 to $35 slot, and good and choice heifer calves sold from $25 to $32. Stocker steer yearlings of good and choice grades sold from $24 to $29.

Trade on calves and cattle was a highly mixed affair at Fort Worth Monday. Fed steers and heifers were very scarce with less than a half dozen loads on offer, and prices were strong to 50 cents higher on the short crop. Fat cows were stronger, but canners and cutters were unevenly steady to weaker with some lightweight canners under heavy pressure. The percentage of cows in the cattle run was relatively large, since they made up about 25 per cent of the cattle. Calves were generally active and fully steady with some slaughter calves fully 50 cents above last week's low close. Bulls brought fully steady prices.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $23.50 to $26.50, with some held above that range. Common to medium butcher yearlings and heifers sold from $17 to $23.

Fat cows sold from $18 to $20, with a few to $20.50 and $21. Canners and cutters cashed at $12 to $18. Bulls sold from $18 to $23.

Good and choice grades of slaughter calves sold from $23.50 to $26.50, with a few to $27. Cull to medium slaughter calves drew $16 to $23. Stocker steer calves ranged from $25 to $32, and steer yearlings sold from $22 to $26.50. Heifer calves ranged from $28 down, and heifer yearlings sold from $25 downward. A few mixed lots of stocker cows of fair kinds sold around $18 to $19.50.

Hogs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Choice hogs topped at $19 to $19.25. Medium to good butchers sold from $18 to $19. Sows cashed at $17 to $18.50. A few stags drew $12 to $16.

It was the fourth consecutive day choice hogs and sows had sold at those prices at Fort Worth. Most Northern markets came in lower Monday despite smaller supplies there.

C. D. (Monk) Herron Making Rounds in Interest of Fisher Race

C. D. (Monk) Herron, Fisher County farmer, is making rounds of the Fisher County area in the interest of his race for the office of tax assessor-collector, to fill the vacancy left by the death recently of the duly elected official.

A new assessor-collector will be elected in the forthcoming general election on November 4, absentee voting in which has already begun.

Herron makes the following statement:

I should like to take this opportunity to solicit your vote and influence to obtain election as tax assessor and collector of Fisher County in the November election.

I am a native of Fisher County, who graduated from Sylvester High School. I graduated from Draughon's Business College in Lubbock, having majored in accounting.

My wife is also a native of Fisher County, and we have four children. At present we are farming three miles north of McCaulley. I am 38 years old. I feel I am fully qualified to handle the duties of this office.

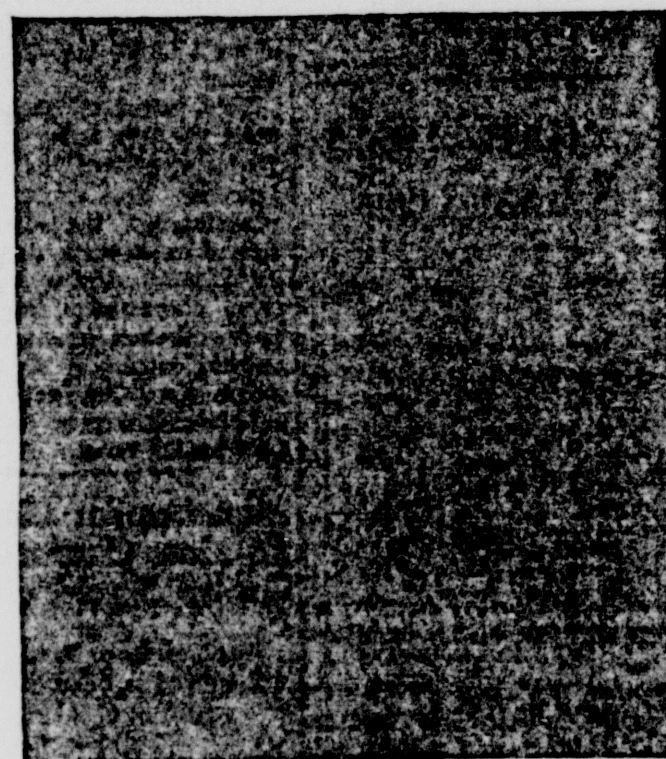

Thanking you in advance for your vote and influence. Sincerely—C. D. (Monk) Herron.

You watch your bright-haired boy turn in a twinkling from rowdy horseplay to tender cherishing of an injured bird.

How humbly proud you are of such evidence that your son is growing—in all directions!

And how you want for him a world where there are no barriers to his development as a free and independent American.

There are many ways you can help assure this sort of world for him. One very important way is to be on the watch for ideas that could deprive him of his right to freedom and independence.

The idea, for instance, that "government should run such and such a business, a service, an institution." Even though it has been shown that the more things government runs, the less freedom there is for the individual.

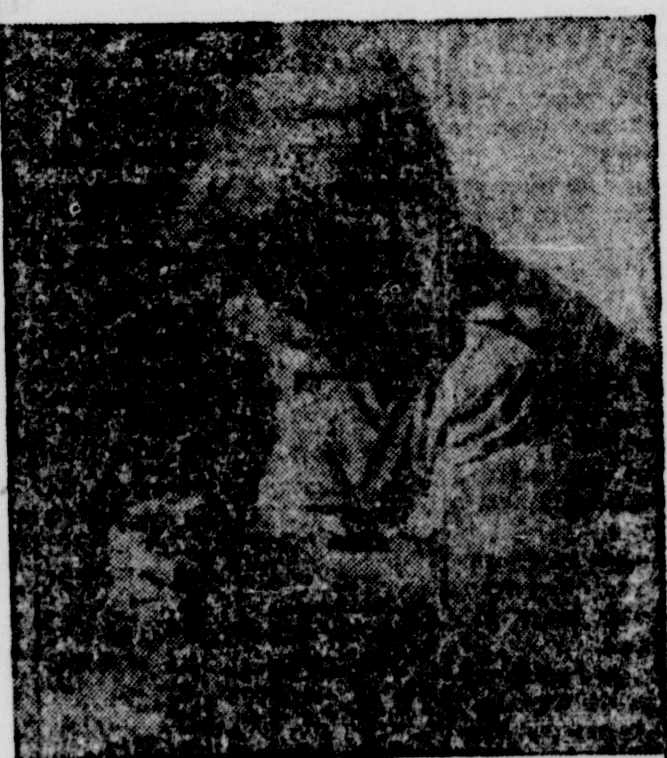

When you hear people talking like that, point out that when you take independence away from anybody, you undermine the freedom of everybody.

Very much aware of this threat are the independent electric companies, because government already runs part of the electric business. And powerful people are pressing government to take over more.

County Home Demonstration Council Makes Plans for Christmas Meeting

Council for Jones County Home Demonstration Clubs met in Anson last Wednesday afternoon with 24 members, six visitors and 12 clubs represented.

The New Hope club has disbanded, leaving only 13 clubs in the county.

Roll call was answered, but no minutes were read as the secretary was absent. The clubs and council officers all gave their yearly reports.

An article was read about Mrs. Maxey Harvey, state health and safety chairman, and a member of the Willow Creek club, being given the Carol Lane award for her outstanding work in health and safety since she has held that office. Jones County is proud of Mrs. Harvey.

The yearbook chairman, Mrs. W. C. Glazner, asked that each club turn in the number of yearbooks needed for another year, as the yearbooks will soon be ready to go to press.

Mrs. Harvey passed out material on enriched corn meal and grits. She suggested that each club try to use this in a program before the end of the year. Senator Moffett is introducing a bill to the next state Legislature asking that all millers add the vitamins, niacin, riboflavin, thiamin and iron to all corn meal and grits. Mrs. Harvey also suggested that each club member write a card or letter to her senator or representative asking them to vote for the bill when Senator Moffett presents it.

Mrs. Howard Robert sent her resignation as treasurer for the council for another year, and Mrs. Sol Branscum of Friendship club at Hamlin was elected.

All newly elected president and council members were invited to attend the council meeting next time to get acquainted with the procedure of council before taking office for next year.

Mrs. Newberry announced that the workshops on advanced clothing would be held in February. These workshops will be open to non-club members as well as those belonging to the various clubs.

Plans were made for the annual Christmas luncheon and party, to be held in the American Legion Memorial Hall at Anson on Wed-

Pied Pipers Idle This Week; Squad Injuries Are Mending

Prewit Expected To Be Back with Squad Next Week

A rest this week-end from football duties will be a timely break for the Hamlin Pied Pipers after their first conference game of the year—which was a heart-breaker lost to the Haskell Indians Friday night. The Pied Pipers outplayed the visiting Indians, but the one break in the first 13 seconds of the tilt was all Haskell needed to take the melee 6 to 0.

Several minor injuries to members of the squad will have time to heal during the idle week—if Coach's J. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn give their boys a chance to let-up from practice long enough.

Fullback Ken Prewit, who had missed parts of several games because of an injured hand, was not able to play in Friday's tilt with Haskell because of a sprained ankle sustained earlier last week. The week off is expected to put him back among the regulars, the coaches said this week.

Although doped to lose the melee to Haskell, it is believed the Pied Pipers would have won had Prewit been able to play Friday night.

Next game on the Pied Piper slate will be at Seymour on October 31.

Seventh Graders Lose First Tilt to Haskell

Hamlin Junior High School's seventh grade gridders suffered their first defeat of the season at Haskell last Monday afternoon. Haskell shut the Hamlin boys 6 to 0. Haskell's little Indians scored early in the game after recovering a Hamlin fumble.

Hamlin played an excellent defensive game. Outstanding players were Joe Don Helms, Nick Moore and Cleon Warner. Looking best no offense were Larry Butler, Speck Cox and Gary Ted Jay.

Haskell Scores in First Few Seconds To Win by 6 to 0

Thirteen seconds was all the time the Haskell High School Indians needed Friday night to wrap up the first conference game of the season for the two teams as they trounced the Hamlin High School Pied Pipers 6 to 0. The tilt, attended by a big crowd of fans from the two schools, was played on the Pied Piper field.

Tom Anderson took the opening kick-off from Hamlin and traipsed 80 yards for the difference in the game. No Hamlin defensive man was able to touch the runner as he went down from his own 20-yard line behind some good blocking.

The Pied Pipers, playing without the services of Fullback Ken Prewit, who was nursing a sprained ankle sustained earlier in the week, were never able to garner enough punch to score. However, late in the fourth period they did make it to the Indians' 12-yard spot only to lose the ball on downs.

In the statistics department the Pied Pipers made only seven first downs to Haskell's nine, but otherwise the home boys held the edge. The Pipers had 123 yards on the ground and 124 yards in the air to 99 yards on the ground for the Indians and 28 yards on passes. Hamlin completed six of 18 passes while Haskell connected with three of nine tosses.

Two Deer Hunters Get Five in Colorado

Two Hamlin deer hunters, Edgar Duncan and L. R. Fowler, returned last week-end from an early season hunt in Northern Colorado. And they returned with proof of a successful hunt—four bucks and one doe (open season was on does, too).

The weather was ideal—even a little on the balmy side—say the hunters, who expected snow.

Mighty Mice Go to Merkel Tuesday Nite

Coach Harry Martin's Mighty Mice gridders of Hamlin Junior High School journey to Merkel next Tuesday night for a return game.

Hamlin boys won the first encounter by a 48 to 0 score. The game will start at 7:00 o'clock. A delegation of fans is expected to follow the Mighty Mice to the tilt.

Deer Hunting Will Be Good, Wildlife Specialist States

Many Hamlin area hunters are encouraged by the report that the upcoming big game hunting season in Texas should be a good one. This report is from Ed Cooper, wildlife specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Favorable weather throughout the year, he adds, has provided plenty of food for game animals, game birds and waterfowl.

But, warns the specialist, when the thousands of hunters take to the highways and byways and then to the woods and fields, there will be many who will never go home again under their power unless the rules of safety are followed.

Approximately two-thirds of all hunting accidents can be traced to three causes, says Cooper. He lists these as humans in the line of fire; mistaking humans for game; and careless handling of firearms, which includes hunting with the safety catch off.

Safe hunting depends on the common sense, courtesy and vigilance of all those who engage in this sport. Accidents can be reduced, says Cooper, if the most common causes are avoided.

Treat your gun as if it were loaded, even when you are positive it is empty. Keep it empty whenever possible with the action open except when you are ready to shoot, advises Cooper. Keep the muzzle pointed away from anything you do not intend to shoot, and wear distinctive clothing to keep other hunters from picking a mistaken target.

Cooper warns against climbing trees or crossing fences or jumping ditches with a loaded gun. Never, he adds, pull a gun toward you by the muzzle and never engage in horseplay while holding a gun. And, finally, the specialist warns, alcohol does not mix with either gasoline or gun powder.

Anson and Haskell Take Loop Leads After First Week-End's District Tilts

Four of the District 6-AA football teams squared off for conference games, last week-end, but Stamford, doped to take the loop crown this season, was idle.

Hamlin dropped its opener to the Haskell Indians, although the Pied Pipers outplayed their foes, while Anson's Tigers won their first game of the season over the hapless, Seymour Panthers. Results of the week-end put Anson and Haskell on top of the heap in standings, but these ratings are expected to be changed before the conference play is over.

After six losses in as many starts this year, the Anson Tigers trounced the Seymour Panthers Friday night 22 to 15 on the Panthers' home griddle.

The Panthers had taken a 7 to 0 lead in the second period on Quarterback Eldon Welch's touchdown from the one-foot position and subsequent conversion kick, and the score stood 7 to 0 at the half.

Blackwell Trounces McCaulley 38 to 18 in Friday Night Melee

Gridders from Blackwell defeated the McCaulley High School Eagles 38 to 18 Friday night in a District 9-B six-man game played on the McCaulley grid.

Scoring for Blackwell were Albert Sneed, who went over from the one-yard spot; Jerry Ware, who tallied from the 25; Michael Kinard passed to Larry Estes for 35 yards; Kinard passed to Sneed for 55 yards; and John Tubbs ran over from the two and 10-yard lines.

For McCaulley Melvin Green ran the ball over from the one; Jimmy Jeffrey ran over from the one; and his cousin, Jerry Jeffrey, passed to Larry McWright for 16 yards.

Blackwell made two extra points and McCaulley made none.

After Friday night's tilt the district records for the two teams are: Blackwell, one lost and one won; McCaulley, one won and two lost.

Anson scored in the third period and went ahead 8 to 7 when David Propet scored on a quarterback sneak and Ronnie Bailey ran over for the two extra points. Bailey scored again in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard run. Dorma scored again for Anson on a three yard plunge and Mike Propet added the extra two points on a run.

Seymour also scored in the final period when Welch passed to Travis Clark for 42 yards and a touchdown. Billy McLarty ran the extra point to put the Panthers ahead temporarily 15 to 14. The last Anson score came shortly after the Seymour push.

In the other district 6-AA tilt Haskell's Indians pushed over a quick score in the first 13 seconds of the game and then costed the rest of the way to beat the Hamlin Pied Pipers 6 to 0. The Pipers held the edge in statistics for the game—but statistics do not win a ball game.

Playing without the services of Fullback Ken Prewit, who had been out of previous games with a hand injury, the Pied Pipers were never able to muster enough push at opportune times to score.

Haskell scored on an 80-yard run-back of the opening kick-off, which was a bad break for the host team which could never be overcome. Tom Anderson was the runner for the Indians on the play.

Stamford's Bulldogs, who have won five of their six games this year, were passing the week-end on the bench. Hamlin will be the idle team this week-end in the five-school loop.

Home Agent Gives Some Pointers on Lines and Colors for Good Neighbors

Members of the Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club met at the club room at Neinda last Tuesday with eight members and the county agent present.

After an opening prayer and a game, roll call was answered with "What I Would Like to Receive for Christmas." Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. L. R. Faulkenberry, and council report was given by Mrs. J. E. McCoy. There being no business to attend to, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Mary Y. Newberry, who gave an interesting program on "Lines and Colors."

Among the things brought out by Mrs. Newberry on lines she said: "To be really becoming your clothes must have lines to flatter your figure. You may be tall or short, slender or stout; whatever your type, there are lines becoming to you. Take a good look at yourself in a full view mirror. Study your figure and learn which lines are becoming to you. Then select your pattern and dresses with your best lines."

"Do you know your colors? Do the colors you wear really do something for you?" In choosing your most becoming colors, consider your skin, your hair, your eyes, your size and your personality.

"Try on different colors and see which are becoming to you. Everyone has either a blue or yellow undertone to her skin. Find out which you are and what colors you can wear best, and stick to them. Do not choose colors because you like that shade but choose colors that are becoming to your type of person."

The hostesses, Mrs. Buck Joiner and Mrs. Jack Kelly, served pecan pie and coffee to Mmes. Newberry, L. R. Faulkenberry, J. E. McCoy, Elmer Joiner, L. E. Madden, Jessie Stanford and Dale Lain.

Beta Theta Chapter Meets Wednesday In Mehaffey Home

Members of the Beta Theta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. L. Mehaffey.

Mrs. Jimmy Simmons, home-making teacher at Hamlin High School, presented a program on "Your Poise and Charm." She brought with her Gloria Rodgers, Brenda Fincannon, Yvonne Conner and Ann Maberry, who demonstrated the proper technique of sitting, standing and walking. In an interesting talk Mrs. Simmons stressed the fact that charm is not only physical appearance but the way a person conducts herself and her ability to talk intelligently.

Mrs. Billy Joe Wilson presided over the business session, at which time the sorority voted to invite the Xi Gamma Pi chapter to its annual pledge dinner, to be held November 22. Also, all Beta Theta members who plan to attend the West Texas convention in Abilene the week-end of November 25 are urged to make reservations immediately, it was announced.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members and guests: Mmes. D. C. Andrews, Edgar Boaz, L. C. Bonds, Bill Foster, Mac Fullerton, Weldon Griggs, Neil Lam-nack, R. L. McClung, Max Murrell, Garland Preston, Duane Stallcup, Jimmy Vaughn, Billy Joe Wilson, Guy Weaver, Jimmy Simmons and Misses Gloria Rodgers, Brenda Fincannon, Yvonne Conner and Ann Maberry.

The members will meet next on the evening of November 10 in the home of Mrs. Wilson Brannon for the ritual of jewels.

Mrs. Maxey Harvey Gets Award for Work With Safety Program

Mrs. Maxey Harvey, a member of a Jones County Home Demonstration Club for 23 years, has been awarded a certificate of merit in 1958 Carol Lane Awards for traffic safety through the National Safety Council of Chicago, reports Mary Y. Newberry, Jones County home demonstration agent.

She was honored for her work as health and safety chairman of the Texas Home Demonstration Association of the Jones County Home Demonstration Council. By her efforts a driver re-education program was begun in women's clubs in each of the 170 active club counties in Texas. A re-education program was the outcome of visual tests conducted by Mrs. Harvey and other interested persons in several clubs.

The Carol Lane awards, named for the women's travel director of Shell Oil Company, are the only national awards recognizing the accomplishments of women in traffic safety. They are presented for significant contributions to the preservation of lives through development and direction of an effective traffic program and are administered by the county council through a Shell grant.

Active in Home Demonstration Club work with the Willow Creek group, Mrs. Harvey said Thursday that she began the project in 1956 and concluded work on it this past August.

The mother of two children, Mrs. Harvey lives with her stock farmer husband on a farm about 20 miles northeast of Abilene on Dead Man Creek. Their daughter, Nita, is a senior in Abilene Christian College, while their son, Glen, is in the U. S. Navy.

Lions Eat Venison As They Plan for Sales of Brooms

Final organization of teams for the afternoon sales of brooms by Hamlin Lions Club members consumed most of the time at the weekly luncheon session of the civic group Tuesday noon at the oil mill guest house. Ed Croan was in charge of the drive direction, and made explanation of territory assignments to the various selling teams.

Team captains named were Stanley Carmichael, E. A. Hewett, B. O. Bell, Jim King, J. D. Josey and Claude Lancaster. Workers at the broom truck were Croan, Calvin Bailey, Lester Minton, Austin Siburt, Donley Williams and L. H. McBride.

The brooms and other articles made by blind and near-blind people at the Lighthouse for the Blind at Fort Worth, were sold Tuesday afternoon. A portion of the revenue went to the Lions Club and will be used on projects for the blind in the Hamlin area and other activities.

Venison roast was served at the luncheon, the meat being supplied by Edgar Duncan, long time Lion and former club president.

First Vice President Donley Williams presided at Tuesday's meeting in the absence of Acting President B. V. Newberry.

Guests at the gathering were Cleo Scott of Houston, Jerry King of Wichita Falls and Jerry Howard of the Celotex plant.

Fowler, who with Edgar Duncan, Hamlin grocer, last week went to Colorado on a deer hunting expedition, sat down to their first breakfast of the hunting spree and—pop! went Fowler's lower dental plate right in the big middle.

Well, that fixed L. R.'s eating proclivities for several days. He even had to forego the ham and eggs and toast that had been prepared for that meal—as well as other meats and hard foods.

Cooked cereals and soups are a heck of a way to feast on a hunting trip, Fowler will inform you.

Mrs. E. Kraft of Hamlin Memorial Hospital will be the speaker this (Thursday) evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Jones County Unit of the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association at 7:30 o'clock at the Hotel Coffee Shop.

Members of the association are asked to take along a "white elephant" to be auctioned off. All wanted are urged to attend. Date for this meeting only has been changed because of the state convention to be held in Dallas the next week-end in October. Several members from Anson and Hamlin are to attend the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kiser of Sylvester community, southwest of Hamlin, will celebrate 30 days of married life together Sunday afternoon at the family home. Their children will host an informal come-and-go tea for friends and relatives from 2:00 till 5:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend, say the children.

Oil Production to Be Cut in Texas During November

Land owners and royalty holders of the Hamlin territory will experience a further cut in income from oil during November, following the setting of decreased production pattern by the Texas Railroad Commission at Austin last week.

Texas will produce slightly less crude oil next month than in October although the daily allowable was increased by the commission.

This paradox stems partly from an increase in the permissible flow by 61,465 barrels daily to 3,004,401 barrels a day.

Taking into account daily well build-up and under-production, the 30 days of November will produce 80,160,999 barrels compared to 81,537,719 barrels this month. October's production will be down about 2,750,000 barrels from September.

Independent oil producers had their way in fixing the 11-day producing pattern, the same as in October. Most major companies recommended the allowable be figured on either a 12-day or 10-day pattern. Under the commission's conservation formulas the 11-day pattern means wells will be shut down only 19 days next month compared with 20 this month—resulting in the 61,465-barrel-a-day boost.

First Baptist Church To Host Conference Group Next Tuesday

Hamlin's First Baptist Church will be host to the monthly workers' conference of the Jones County Baptist Association next Tuesday, according to the pastor, R. A. Calvin Bailey.

The executive board and Woman's Missionary Society will meet at 5:00 p. m. The evening meal will be served to attendants at 6:00 p. m. by the host church. Theme of the program will be "The Church: Doing the Biggest Job in the Best Way." This hour of inspiration [and] information will begin at 7:00 p. m. Scripture and prayer will be given by Rev. Jack Southland of Stamford. Many helpful suggestions will be included in the program. Special music will be presented by the host church, and Rev. Dan Gaines will conclude the program with an inspirational message.

A large crowd is expected, and each person has an invitation to be present, declares Rev. Bailey.

Singing Set Sunday At Stamford Church

Singers and song lovers of the Hamlin territory are advised that the regular fourth Sunday singing will be held Sunday at Stamford at the Calvary Baptist Church.

The songfest will get underway at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon, to which the public is invited, say the singing promoters.

Allotments to Be Announced Prior To Vote on Plan

Hamlin area cotton farmers will participate in the annual referendum on marketing quotas, along with those of the rest of the Cotton Belt, on December 15.

A national marketing quota of 12,167,000 bales, a national acreage allotment of 16,000,000 acres and a date set, December 15, for a farmer referendum on marketing quotas for upland cotton have been set by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

All are in accordance with present legislation covering cotton. In setting the national marketing quota figure the secretary found that the total supply of upland cotton exceeds the normal supply needed by 4379,000 bales. The national acreage allotment for 1959 will be apportioned to the states, the state allotment to the counties and the county allotments to farms according to the provisions of the law.

If marketing quotas for 1959 are approved—it takes two-thirds favorable vote—in the December 15 referendum, the cotton grower will have a choice between two allotment-price support programs known as Choice A and B.

Under A, growers who comply with their regular acreage allotment will have available price support at not less than 80 per cent of parity. Growers under Choice B receive large farm allotments—40 per cent above the regular allotment—but with a reduction of 15 per cent of parity in the support price as compared with Choice A.

If marketing quotas are not approved for the 1959 upland cotton crop, only the regular allotment program will be in effect. Price support will be available to cooperatives 90 per cent of parity as set by law. Under the 10 per cent program and in accordance with controlling legislation, growers who exceed their chosen farm acreage allotments will be subject to penalties of 50 per cent of the cotton parity price as of June 15, 1959, on the farm's excess production. Too, all cotton produced on the farm will be ineligible for price support.

According to J. E. Montgomery, program specialist, Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) office, notice of individual farm allotments under both Choice A and B will be made available to producers prior to the December 15 referendum.

Last year gasoline and oil advertisers invested over $30,000,000 in newspaper advertising.

FARMING IS STILL VERY HIGHLY DIVERSIFIED

Farming in the United States remains highly diversified despite the continuing developments in mechanization and automation, as farmers of the Hamlin territory will attest. John G. McHaney, extension economist, says this is true not only in crops produced, but also in size, in labor spent in production and in investment in land and equipment.

A recent U. S. Department of Agriculture report on farm costs and returns on family operated farms for 1957 lists 31 major types of commercial farms and 18 important farming areas in the nation, says McHaney.

The different types of farms vary considerably in acreage and intensity of use. Farms range in size from an average of 10 acres for poultry farms to 13,340 acres per sheep ranch in the Southwest. Little or no land is cropped on these two types of farms.

Farms with more intensive cropping range

from an average of 29 acres harvested on high labor intensive tobacco farms to around 425 acres on grain roughage livestock farms. Average labor per acre of cropland ranges from 135 hours on tobacco to eight and one-half hours on grain roughage livestock farms.

Total investments per farm also vary considerably among the types of farms, points out the economist. Peanut and cotton farms averaged a total investment of $10,530 in 1957, while the sheep ranches of the Southwest averaged $177,770. Machinery and equipment investments ranged from $1,800 for the peanut and cotton and poultry farms to almost $17,000 on wheat-pea farms.

McHaney also points out that a wide range in total investments exists within a farming type area and among individual farms within the area. Corn Belt farms, for example, range from less than $40,000 to more than $100,000 per farm.

Special Sale of Stockers and Feeders Brings Nearly Half Million Dollars

Sale of more than 3,000 typical Texas stocker and feeder calves and yearlings at Fort Worth in the annual October special sale developed two distinct governing factors, declares Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly summary, who points out that: 1. Where the quality was high buyers were definitely more active; 2. In all cases the weight of the cattle was a predominant influence in the bidding.

With this year's crop of calves and yearlings scaling much above normal, the buyer's awareness of the number of dollars involved was quite noticeable. Price per pound went down sharply with each extra 100 pounds.

Calves weighing under 400 pounds were extremely scarce. Yearlings under 600 pounds also were scarce.

The two-day affair at Fort Worth attracted entries of over 3,300 head, of which owners sold 3,003. These cattle averaged 492.8 straight across, and the average price was $27.40 per 100 straight across in steers and heifers alike.

Total money paid for the was $405,605.78, an average of $135 per head. Good and choice steer calves sold in the $27 to $35 slot, and good and choice heifer calves sold from $25 to $32. Stocker steer yearlings of good and choice grades sold from $24 to $29.

Trade on calves and cattle was a highly mixed affair at Fort Worth Monday. Fed steers and heifers were very scarce with less than a half dozen loads on offer, and prices were strong to 50 cents higher on the short crop. Fat cows were stronger, but canners and cutters were unevenly steady to weaker with some lightweight canners under heavy pressure. The percentage of cows in the cattle run was relatively large, since they made up about 25 per cent of the cattle. Calves were generally active and fully steady with some slaughter calves fully 50 cents above last week's low close. Bulls brought fully steady prices.

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $23.50 to $26.50, with some held above that range. Common to medium butcher yearlings and heifers sold from $17 to $23.

Fat cows sold from $18 to $20, with a few to $20.50 and $21. Canners and cutters cashed at $12 to $18. Bulls sold from $18 to $23.

Good and choice grades of slaughter calves sold from $23.50 to $26.50, with a few to $27. Cull to medium slaughter calves drew $16 to $23. Stocker steer calves ranged from $25 to $32, and steer yearlings sold from $22 to $26.50. Heifer calves ranged from $28 down, and heifer yearlings sold from $25 downward. A few mixed lots of stocker cows of fair kinds sold around $18 to $19.50.

Hogs were steady at Fort Worth Monday. Choice hogs topped at $19 to $19.25. Medium to good butchers sold from $18 to $19. Sows cashed at $17 to $18.50. A few stags drew $12 to $16.

It was the fourth consecutive day choice hogs and sows had sold at those prices at Fort Worth. Most Northern markets came in lower Monday despite smaller supplies there.

Sheep and lambs were steady at Fort Worth. Goats were unchanged. Good and choice slaughter lambs sold from $21 to $22.50, while stocker and feeder lambs drew $18 to $21.50. Medium and yearling wethers sold for $17 to $19.50, and aged wethers ranged from $12 to $14. Slaughter ewes sold around $7 to $8.

A few common to medium quality aged stocker ewes sold from $8.50 to $11. A few slaughter goats sold around $7.

Honest Errors Pay Well

Federal tax enforcement efforts in the Dallas district, covering the north half of Texas, have resulted in the recovery of $70,430,993 in additional revenue during the fiscal year just ended—July 1, 1957, through June 30, 1958.

A. E. Fogle Jr., administrative officer at Abilene, said that sum exceeds by $10,660,434, or approximately 18 per cent, the amount the Internal Revenue Service recovered through tax audit and collection activities during the previous fiscal year.

Of the total sum, $39,056,656 was accounted for by the regular auditing of tax returns. $3,101,520 come from pre-refund auditing, and $28,272,817 resulted from the collection of delinquent accounts and securing of delinquent returns.

Most of the recovered funds, Fogle said, resulted from the collection of honest errors made by taxpayers, brought to light through IRS auditing procedures. These same examinations, he said, also showed returns which contained different interpretations of federal tax regulations.

A small portion resulted from the work of IRS special agents' investigations of cases in which fraud was present.

Meat Reflects Enterprise

Heavy stress is placed on dark areas in the economic landscape. But there are many bright spots—and one of them is agriculture. Prices received by farmers for their products have been running 10 per cent above the level of a year ago. In the first quarter of this year, farm income was more than $1,000,000,000 ahead of the equivalent period in 1957. Secretary Benson foresees continuing gains for the rest of 1958.

An outstanding rise has been registered in livestock prices. As of a recent date, beef cattle prices were a whopping 36 per cent better than they were a year earlier, and hog prices were up 21 per cent. And demand for meat runs at high levels.

This is a matter of top importance. Meat, to speak, is a staple item of production on the majority of farms—the small as well as the large. And that isn't all—meat, unlike the so-called basic crops, moves in a free market. Earl D. Butler, one of the country's top farm counselors and agricultural economists, has said: "What most people forget is that some of the most important farm commodities are not price supported by the government. For example, livestock and their products represent more than half of the gross income of farmers, yet the only commodity in this group that is price supported is butter."

The whole meat industry—from the farm, through the packers, to the retailers—is geared to the free enterprise system. That's why it is a success—and why it isn't a burden on the taxpayers.

Do It Now: Say It!

You have a friend, a man, a woman, a boy or a girl. For some reason you love that person very much. Perhaps that one does not know, and would like to have you say it.

Your friend has helped you along the way in the days gone by. Gratitude is in your heart. Do not let it lie buried there—say it.

Some joy comes his way. You rejoice with him. But he will never know it unless you say it.

An honor comes to him. He wins in the game of life, and you are glad—say it.

Your friend succeeds in some task which he has undertaken. You feel grateful pride that he has done it—say it.

Distress comes his way. He may have lost his property. Some of his loved ones may have gone wrong. Disease may have laid its hand on him, taking away the glow of health. You would share the distress with him—say it.

Old age, or perhaps a breakdown in the human machinery, may shut in your friend so that he can no longer fare forth among his fellows. Perhaps the end draws near. In your heart you wish him bon voyage as he nears the sunset gate. A word of kindly sympathy would brighten the way—say it.

The messenger of death may have knocked at his door and borne away into the unseen world some loved one. A word of sympathy would help to lighten the load—say it.

A personal word, a telephone call, a postcard, a letter, a telegram, and only a few minutes of time! Silent sympathy. Your own life may be better because of it, but your friend may go to the end of the journey and never know. You may add to the joy; you may lighten the load; you may brighten the way if you only take time to say it.

As an old-timer we can remember when the only time we had for coffee was about an hour before daybreak and two hours after sundown.—Aztec, New Mexico, Independent.

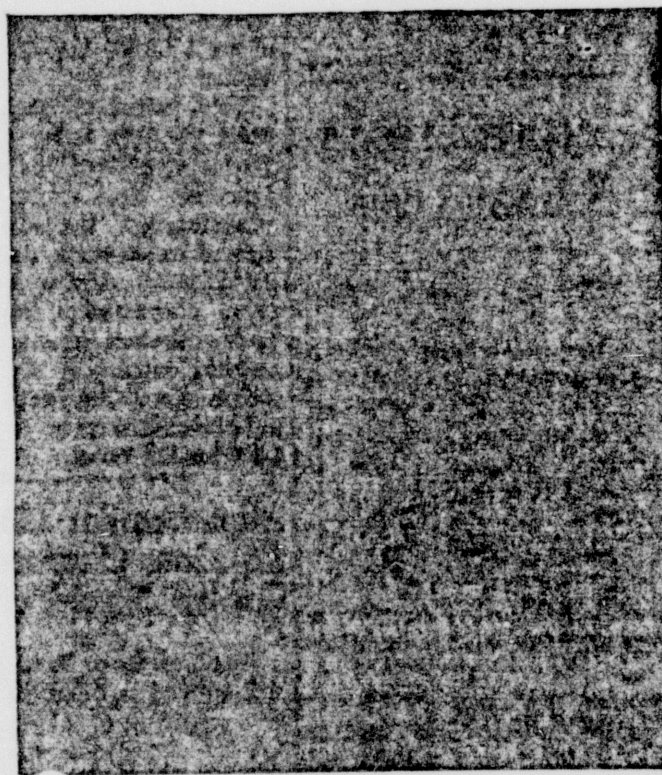

Editorial of the Week

GIVE US RUNNING WATER

"The conveniences and comforts which running water could bring to farm homes would do more than any other single thing to hold young people on the farm. So said hundreds of farm boys and girls in one of our recent young folks letter contests.

Those who didn't have running water said, "It would be the greatest home improvement that could be made." Those who had recently installed a water system praised its many virtues—convenience, comfort, elimination of drudgery, health benefits, etc.

Only two-thirds of all farm homes (64 per cent) have running water. That one in three which is left still represents well over a million farm families. It's a challenge and an opportunity.—Progressive Farmer.

You watch your bright-haired boy turn in a twinkling from rowdy horseplay to tender cherishing of an injured bird.

How humbly proud you are of such evidence that your son is growing—in all directions!

And how you want for him a world where there are no barriers to his development as a free and independent American.

There are many ways you can help assure this sort of world for him. One very important way is to be on the watch for ideas that could deprive him of his right to freedom and independence.

The idea, for instance, that "government should run such and such a business, a service, an institution." Even though it has been shown that the more things government runs, the less freedom there is for the individual.

When you hear people talking like that, point out that when you take independence away from anybody, you undermine the freedom of everybody.

Very much aware of this threat are the independent electric companies, because government already runs part of the electric business. And powerful people are pressing government to take over more.

Baptist Churches To Participate in Evangelistic Plan

Ten churches in the Jones County Baptist Association have agreed to participate in the 1959 North American simultaneous evangelistic crusade, said Dr. C. Wade Freeman, superintendent of evangelism of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, this week.

A recent extended survey by the state evangelism department showed that 3,150 or 94.8 per cent of the denomination's churches in Texas will be included in the movement.

Additional statistics released by Dr. Freeman show that 3,508 churches will observe New Year's Eve prayer services this year, and 3,352 churches will schedule a "commitment to soul winning day" on January 4, 1959.

"This is the first time that all Baptist groups in North America have participated in such a drive. We hope the effects of this year of revival will be world-wide with prayer periods and crusades scheduled in many foreign countries," said the veteran evangelist.

Texas crusade dates are January 25-February 8, March 15-29 and April 12-25.

Theme for the simultaneous crusade is "New Life for You."

THE POPULAR F-100 PICK-UP is one of 371 Ford truck models available in 1959. Dual headlights and a new Ford nameplate on the hood are standard features on the pick-up models. With the 223-cubic-inch six-cylinder engine—the most modern "six" in the industry—Ford offers greater economy in the high speed or increased load range. The pick-up is available with either this Styleside body, which Ford pioneered with the 1957 models, or the F100 body. The new pick-ups are being shown by Hamlin Motor Company in Hamlin.

Major Carolyn Greenway Knight Gets Second Commendation for WAC Work

Major Carolyn Greenway Knight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Greenway of Hamlin, was recently awarded the Commendation Ribbon by Headquarters United States Air Forces in Europe as a result of outstanding services as the chief of personnel services division while with Headquarters United States Air Forces in Europe from 1955 to 1958.

This is the second such honor earned by Major Knight during her career, the award being made in the form of a first Oak Leaf Cluster to the original commendation ribbon. Presentation was made by Major General Lloyd P. Hopwood, director of personnel procurement and training, Headquarters United States Air Force.

Through her outstanding organizational and leadership ability and her unselfish devotion to duty, the personnel services division has been able to successfully adjust to an unprecedented period of growth in workload and mission. Her fairness, sincerity and sound judgment in administering command housing, welfare and athletic programs have earned the respect and appreciation of thousands of individuals of this command, the citation stated.

Originally from Hamlin, Major Knight is a 1940 graduate of West Texas State College at Canyon. While there she was a member of the National Honor Society, Alpha Chi, and was listed in the 1940 edition of "Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges." She was the college's intra-mural golf champion in 1939 and the French foil fencing champion from 1937 to 1940.

Commissioned a second lieutenant in September, 1942, Major Knight served as an instructor and training program director of the WAC during most of World War II. Following a two-year tour of duty in Europe (1946-48), she was assigned to Lackland Air Force Base at San Antonio, where she assisted in the activation and served as deputy commander of the first WAF Training Center in the United States Air Force. A year later, she was assigned to Headquarters, United States Air Force, where she served for two years as the executive officer for Colonel May, the first director of the WAF for the Air Force.

Prior to her most recent overseas tour in Europe, she had served as an instructor in the Air University's Air Command and Staff School at Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama. She graduated from the field officer course of the Air Command and Staff School in December, 1953.

Since her return from Europe this summer, she has been assigned with the professional educational division, deputy chief of staff for personnel, Headquarters United States Air Force.

In April, 1954, she was married to Colonel Gordon B. Knight in the First Baptist Church at Hamlin.

New Ford Heavy Trucks Offering Unusual Features

Ford's heavy and extra heavy duty trucks in 1959 offer nearly 150 conventional tandem and tri-axle models designed to meet any heavy duty hauling requirement, according to officials of Hamlin Motor Company, where the new trucks went on display Wednesday.

Heading the line-up of extra heavies are seven new tilt cab tandem models available on special order in gross vehicle weights from 37,000 to 51,000 pounds, with GCW ratings up to 75,000 pounds. With these new Ford trucks, operators get the servicing and handling ease of Ford's tilt cab design plus tandem axle haul ability.

The complete engine accessibility of the Ford tilt cab design means extra savings through reduced maintenance costs and less downtime. Major service operations, such as engine replacement, can be done in almost half the time required for other type cab forward models. Eight rear tires on the tilt cab tandems provide more flotation, which keeps the trucks from bogging down in deep mud or sand. Walking action of the tandem suspension levels bumps by 50 per cent.

Ford offers six V-8s, including three super duty engines with up to 334-cubic-inch displacement, for its heavy and extra heavy trucks. To get the most performance and economy from these modern short stroke engines, there are new axle ratios and a wide range of power train options to permit each truck to be tailored to operational requirements.

County 4-H Club Council Plans for Year's Activities

Members of the Jones County 4-H Club Council met in the county agents' office at Anson Thursday night. Mary Y. Newberry, county home demonstration agent, called the meeting to order and presided until the permanent chairman for 1959 had been elected. Patsy Wade, the outgoing secretary, read the minutes of last year's meeting, and Judy Simmons read the Jones County 4-H Club Council standing rules.

Mrs. Newberry gave a brief summary of the duties of council members, after which the following officers were elected: Patsy Wade and Ronnie Bagley, co-chairmen; Barbara Shuquist, vice chairman; Marvaine Shuquist, secretary; Judy Simmons, treasurer; Lester Dalton, reporter; Barbara Bennett, song leader; Jim Womack, district boys' delegate; Judy Simmons, district girls' delegate; Lester Dalton, alternate district boys' delegate; Patsy Wade, alternate district girls' delegate.

The council elected Barbara Shuquist and Mark Holloway to act as masters-of-ceremonies of the 4-H achievement banquet, which is to be held November 8 in the Anson Ward School cafeteria.

The group also planned a Christmas party for Thursday night, December 11, in the high school gymnasium. Judy Simmons, Patsy Wade and Lester Dalton were as-

Those attending the Thursday night meeting were Lester Dalton, Ronnie Bagley, Phillip Newsom, Sue Warrick, Ann Sosebee, Barbara Bennett, Judy Simmons, Marvaine Shuquist, Barbara Shuquist, Patsy Wade, Mrs. Eben Shuquist, Mrs. C. Pied Pipers Idle This Week; Squad Injuries Are Mending

Prewit Expected To Be Back with Squad Next Week

A rest this week-end from football duties will be a timely break for the Hamlin Pied Pipers after their first conference game of the year—which was a heart-breaker lost to the Haskell Indians Friday night. The Pied Pipers outplayed the visiting Indians, but the one break in the first 13 seconds of the tilt was all Haskell needed to take the melee 6 to 0.

Several minor injuries to members of the squad will have time to heal during the idle week—if Coach D. C. Andrews and Jimmy Vaughn give their boys a chance to let-up from practice long enough.

Fullback Ken Prewit, who had missed parts of several games because of an injured hand, was not able to play in Friday's tilt with Haskell because of a sprained ankle sustained earlier last week. The week off is expected to put him back among the regulars, the coaches said this week.

Although doped to lose the melee to Haskell, it is believed the Pied Pipers would have won had Prewit been able to play Friday night.

Next game on the Pied Piper slate will be at Seymour on October 31.

Seventh Graders Lose First Tilt to Haskell

Hamlin Junior High School's seventh grade gridders suffered their first defeat of the season at Haskell last Monday afternoon. Haskell shut the Hamlin boys 6 to 0. Haskell's little Indians scored early in the game after recovering a Hamlin fumble.

Hamlin played an excellent defensive game. Outstanding players were Joe Don Helms, Nick Moore and Cleon Warner. Looking best no offense were Larry Butler, Speck Cox and Gary Ted Jay.

Haskell Scores in First Few Seconds To Win by 6 to 0

Thirteen seconds was all the time the Haskell High School Indians needed Friday night to wrap up the first conference game of the season for the two teams as they trounced the Hamlin High School Pied Pipers 6 to 0. The tilt, attended by a big crowd of fans from the two schools, was played on the Pied Piper field.

Tom Anderson took the opening kick-off from Haskell and traipsed 80 yards for the difference in the game. No Hamlin defensive man was able to touch the runner as he went down from his own 20-yard line behind some good blocking.

The Pied Pipers, playing without the services of Fullback Ken Prewit, who was nursing a sprained ankle sustained earlier in the week, were never able to garner enough punch to score. However, late in the fourth period they did make it to the Indians' 12-yard spot only to lose the ball on downs.

In the statistics department the Pied Pipers made only seven first downs to Haskell's nine, but otherwise the home boys held the edge. The Pipers had 123 yards on the ground and 124 yards in the air to 99 yards on the ground for the Indians and 28 yards on passes. Hamlin completed six of 18 passes while Haskell connected with three of nine tosses.

Two Deer Hunters Get Five in Colorado

Two Hamlin deer hunters, Edgar Duncan and L. R. Fowler, returned last week-end from an early season hunt in Northern Colorado. And they returned with proof of a successful hunt—four bucks and one doe (open season was on does, too).

The weather was ideal—even a little on the balmy side—say the hunters, who expected snow.

Mighty Mice Go to Merkel Tuesday Nite

Coach Harry Martin's Mighty Mice gridders of Hamlin Junior High School journey to Merkel next Tuesday night for a return game.

Hamlin boys won the first encounter by a 48 to 0 score. The game will start at 7:00 o'clock. A delegation of fans is expected to follow the Mighty Mice to the tilt.

Deer Hunting Will Be Good, Wildlife Specialist States

Many Hamlin area hunters are encouraged by the report that the upcoming big game hunting season in Texas should be a good one. This report is from Ed Cooper, wildlife specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Favorable weather throughout the year, he adds, has provided plenty of food for game animals, game birds and waterfowl.

But, warns the specialist, when the thousands of hunters take to the highways and byways and then to the woods and fields, there will be many who will never go home again under their power unless the rules of safety are followed.

Approximately two-thirds of all hunting accidents can be traced to three causes, says Cooper. He lists these as humans in the line of fire; mistaking humans for game; and careless handling of firearms, which includes hunting with the safety catch off.

Safe hunting depends on the common sense, courtesy and vigilance of all those who engage in this sport. Accidents can be reduced, says Cooper, if the most common causes are avoided.

Treat your gun as if it were loaded, even when you are positive it is empty. Keep it empty whenever possible with the action open except when you are ready to shoot, advises Cooper. Keep the muzzle pointed away from anything you do not intend to shoot, and wear distinctive clothing to keep other hunters from picking a mistaken target.

Cooper warns against climbing trees or crossing fences or jumping ditches with a loaded gun. Never, he adds, pull a gun toward you by the muzzle and never engage in horseplay while holding a gun. And, finally, the specialist warns, alcohol does not mix with either gasoline or gun powder.

Anson and Haskell Take Loop Leads After First Week-End's District Tilts

Four of the District 6-AA football teams squared off for conference games last week-end, but Stamford, doped to take the loop crown this season, was idle.

Hamlin dropped its opener to the Haskell Indians, although the Pied Pipers outplayed their foes, while Anson's Tigers won their first game of the season over the hapless Seymour Panthers. Results of the week-end put Anson and Haskell on top of the heap in standings, but these ratings are expected to be changed before the conference play is over.

After six losses in as many starts this year, the Anson Tigers trounced the Seymour Panthers Friday night 22 to 15 on the Panthers' home grid.

The Panthers taken a 7 to 0 lead in the second period on Quarterback Eldon Welch's touchdown from the one-foot position and subsequent conversion kick, and the score stood 7 to 0 at the half.

Blackwell Trounces McCaulley 38 to 18 in Friday Night Melee

Gridders from Blackwell defeated the McCaulley High School Eagles 38 to 18 Friday night in a District 9-B six-man game played on the McCaulley grid.

Scoring for Blackwell were Albert Sneed, who went over from the one-yard spot; Jerry Ware, who tallied from the 25; Michael Kinard passed to Larry Estes for 35 yards; Kinard passed to Sneed for 55 yards; and John Tubbs ran over from the two and 10-yard lines.

For McCaulley Melvin Green ran the ball over from the one; Jimmy Jeffrey ran over from the one; and his cousin, Jerry Jeffrey, passed to Larry McWright for 16 yards.

Blackwell made two extra points and McCaulley made none.

After Friday night's tilt the district records for the two teams are: Blackwell, one lost and one won; McCaulley, one won and two lost.

Anson scored in the third period and went ahead 8 to 7 when David Propert scored on a quarterback sneak and Ronnie Bailey ran over for the two extra points. Bailey scored again in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard run. Dorman scored again for Anson on a three yard plunge and Mike Propert added the extra two points on a run.

Seymour also scored in the final period when Welch passed to Travis Clark for 42 yards and a touchdown. Billy McLarty ran the extra point to put the Panthers ahead temporarily 15 to 14. The last Anson score came shortly after the Seymour push.

In the other district 6-AA tilt Haskell's Indians pushed over a quick score in the first 13 seconds of the game and then costed the rest of the way to beat the Hamlin Pied Pipers 6 to 0. The Pipers held the edge in statistics for the game—but statistics do not win a ball game.

Playing without the services of Fullback Ken Prewit, who had been out of previous games with a hand injury, the Pied Pipers were never able to muster enough push at opportune times to score.

Haskell scored on an 80-yard run-back of the opening kick-off, which was a bad break for the host team which could never be overcome. Tom Anderson was the runner for the Indians on the play.

Stamford's Bulldogs, who have won five of their six games this year, were passing the week-end on the bench. Hamlin will be the idle team this week-end in the five-school loop.

Home Agent Gives Some Pointers on Lines and Colors for Good Neighbors

Members of the Good Neighbor Home Demonstration Club met at the club room at Neinda last Tuesday with city members and the county agent present.

After an opening prayer and a game, roll call was answered with "What I Would Like to Receive for Christmas." Minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. L. R. Faulkenberry, and council report was given by Mrs. J. E. McCoy. There being no business to attend to, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Mary Y. Newberry, who gave an interesting program on "Lines and Colors."

Among the things brought out by Mrs. Newberry on lines she said: "To be really becoming your clothes must have lines to flatter your figure. You may be tall or short, slender or stout; whatever your type, there are lines becoming to you. Take a good look at yourself in a full view mirror. Study your figure and learn which lines are becoming to you. Then select your pattern and dresses with your best lines."

"Do you know your colors? Do the colors you wear really do something for you? In choosing your most becoming colors, consider your skin, your hair, your eyes, your size and your personality."

"Try on different colors and see which are becoming to you. Everyone has either a blue or yellow undertone to her skin. Find out which you can wear best, and stick to them. Do not choose colors because you like that shade but choose colors that are becoming to your type of person."

The hostesses, Mrs. Buck Joiner and Mrs. Jack Kelly, served pecan pie and coffee to Mrs. Newberry, L. R. Faulkenberry, J. E. McCoy, Elmer Joiner, L. E. Madden, Jessie Stanford and Dale Lain.

Beta Theta Chapter Meets Wednesday In Mehaffey Home

Members of the Beta Theta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met last Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. L. Mehaffey.

Mrs. Jimmy Simmons, home-making teacher at Hamlin High School, presented a program on "Your Poise and Charm." She brought with her Gloria Rodgers, Brenda Fincannon, Yvonne Conner and Ann Maberry, who demonstrated the proper technique of sitting, standing and walking. In an interesting talk Mrs. Simmons stressed the fact that charm is not only physical appearance but the way a person conducts herself and her ability to talk intelligently.

Mrs. Billy Joe Wilson presided over the business session, at which time the sorority voted to invite the Xi Gamma Pi chapter to its annual pledge dinner, to be held November 22. Also, all Beta Theta members who plan to attend the West Texas convention in Abilene the week-end of November 25 are urged to make reservations immediately, it was announced.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following members and guests: Mrs. D. C. Andrews, Edgar Boaz, L. C. Bonds, Bill Foster, Mac Fullerton, Weldon Griggs, Neil Lamack, R. L. McClung, Max Murrell, Garland Preston, Duane Stallcup, Jimmy Vaughn, Billy Joe Wilson, Guy Weaver, Jimmy Simmons and Misses Gloria Rodgers, Brenda Fincannon, Yvonne Conner and Ann Maberry.

The members will meet next on the evening of November 10 in the home of Mrs. Wilson Brannon for the ritual of jewels.

Mrs. Maxey Harvey Gets Award for Work With Safety Program

Mrs. Maxey Harvey, a member of a Jones County Home Demonstration Club for 23 years, has been awarded a certificate of merit in 1958 Carol Lane Awards for traffic safety through the National Safety Council of Chicago, reports Mary Y. Newberry, Jones County home demonstration agent.

She was honored for her work as health and safety chairman of the Texas Home Demonstration Association of the Jones County Home Demonstration Council. By her efforts a driver re-education program was begun in women's clubs in each of the 170 active club counties in Texas. A re-education program was the outcome of visual tests conducted by Mrs. Harvey and other interested persons in several clubs.

The Carol Lane awards, named for the women's travel director of Shell Oil Company, are the only national awards recognizing the accomplishments of women in traffic safety. They are presented for significant contributions to the preservation of lives through development and direction of an effective traffic program and are administered by the county council through a Shell grant.

Active in Home Demonstration Club work with the Willow Creek group, Mrs. Harvey said Thursday that she began the project in 1956 and concluded work on it this past August.

The mother of two children, Mrs. Harvey lives with her stock farmer husband on a farm about 20 miles northeast of Abilene on Dead Man Creek. Their daughter, Nita, is a senior in Abilene Christian College, while their son, Glen, is in the U. S. Navy.

Lions Eat Venison As They Plan for Sales of Brooms

Final organization of teams for the afternoon sales of brooms by Hamlin Lions Club members consumed most of the time at the weekly luncheon session of the civic group Tuesday noon at the oil mill guest house. Ed Croan was in charge of the drive direction, and made explanation of territory assignments to the various selling teams.

Team captains named were Stanley Carmichael, E. A. Hewett, B. O. Bell, Jim King, J. D. Josey and Claude Lancaster. Workers at the broom truck were Croan, Calvin Bailey, Lester Minton, Austin Siburt, Donley Williams and L. H. McBride.

The brooms and other articles made by blind and near-blind people at the Lighthouse for the Blind at Fort Worth, were sold Tuesday afternoon. A portion of the revenue went to the Lions Club and will be used on projects for the blind in the Hamlin area and other activities.

Venison roast was served at the luncheon, the meat being supplied by Edgar Duncan, long time Lion and former club president.

First Vice President Donley Williams presided at Tuesday's meeting in the absence of Acting President B. V. Newberry.

Guests at the gathering were Cleo Scott of Houston, Jerry King of Wichita Falls and Jerry Howard of the Celotex plant.
